Duties

Complete the Criminal Conviction Records (CCR) process as part of the initial intake process at the request of agency staff for auditing purposes upon prison release after warrant apprehension prior to sentencing, etc.;

*Obtain/request the necessary documents (NCIC, DISCIS, SCOMIS);

*Meet/interview the offender if necessary to validate cause data and to obtain any offender self-report causes;

Research out-of-state and unusual Washington State crimes to determine comparable crimes/RCW's by contacting the arresting jurisdiction and/or sentencing court;

*Complete a thorough review of all criminal conviction sources to identify accurate data and to prevent duplicate entries;

*Enter the cause data in the CCR section of the OSPS application;

*Create the Risk Level Classification (RLC) by scoring the Static Risk Assessment (SRA) electronically or when necessary hand score the SRA;

*Document the CCR completion and notify agency staff and others as appropriate;

- *Attend meetings to discuss unit goals and actively offer suggestions to improve unit productivity and processes.
- *Participate in required training and Washington State Patrol ACCESS certification. Assist in managing the CCRU mailbox to include researching prior requests and tracking statistics. If needed, assist other staff in conducting work;
- *Respond to inquiries regarding offender RLC's, conduct training; and
- *Other duties as required.

Qualifications

Required Qualifications:

Ability to effectively communicate with co-workers, the public, and/or criminal justice agencies;
Ability to analyze and solve problems under highly stressful or adverse situations.

Desired Qualifications:

Two years of experience maintaining or processing offender records, such as legal files, property files, grievance files, administrative files, medical files, parole files, counselor or custody files, in a governmental law enforcement office, court setting or an adult or juvenile correctional agency.

College-level course work in criminal justice, business administration, accounting, social science, or a related field will substitute for one year of experience.
